CLOUD SEEDING

From 1999- 2002 I was a founding member of Cloud Seeding, a 12-member collaborative performance art event that culled from the traditions and lore of the old American circus. In a modified box truck that folded to become our stage we travelled the country over the course of three tours, invited at venues that included: Chashama Theater (NY), The Kitchen (NY), McKinney Art Contemporary (Dallas), Wexner Center for the Arts (Columbus), Plan B Evolving Arts (Santa Fe), Univ of California San Diego, School of Visual Arts (NY), Rhode Island School of Design. Cloud Seeding also received a Franklin Furnace Fundwinner for Performance Art Grant.
